Tel. (916) 966-2260

Areas of Practice:
Elder Law; Trust, Estate and Probate Litigation; Estate Planning; Trust and Probate Administration

Background:
Crystal has over a decade of experience advocating for individuals and families through complex legal challenges. As a former public defender, she gained extensive courtroom experience representing society's most vulnerable. Today, she focuses her practice on helping clients secure their assets and protect generational wealth through comprehensive estate and trust planning.

She also represents clients navigating conflicts that arise after the passing of a loved one. Crystal's ability to balance compassion with strong advocacy makes her an invaluable ally to those facing emotional and legal turmoil. She believes in transparency, open communication, and tailoring legal strategies to each client's specific needs.
